CASE NUMBER: CR-20-00327-001 CRB

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of RELEASE, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive a copy of the Judgment and Commitment which will set out the conditions of your supervision. You will be advised as to how and when you must report to the probation officer.
2. You must not change your authorized residence without the consent of your probation officer.
3. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by these and the special conditions of your supervision that are observed in plain view.
4. You must not commit another federal, state, or local offense.
5. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
6. If you are arrested by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
7. You must answer truthfully any questions asked by your probation officer.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions.
